Dear FOIA Officers:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the implementing regulations of your agency, American Oversight makes the following request for records.

Secretary of State Mike Pompeo addressed the Republican National Convention (RNC) in a pre-recorded speech from his official travel to Jerusalem, Israel, shattering a longstanding norm of secretaries of state refraining from making speeches at their party's conventions due to the partisan nature of such participation.¹ The State Department (State) commented that Mr. Pompeo was acting in his personal capacity and did not use government resources,² and four teams of lawyers reportedly reviewed and approved the decision—including Secretary Pompeo's personal lawyer and lawyers for the RNC.³ This decision came on the heels of Secretary Pompeo himself approving a State Department policy prohibiting Senate-confirmed appointees from attending political party conventions—a policy he now appears to have violated.⁴

American Oversight seeks to shed light on the Secretary of State's decision to speak at a political convention, in apparent disregard of State policies he has approved and of longstanding State Department practice to stay removed from partisan politics.

Requested Records

American Oversight requests that your agency produce the following records within twenty business days:

Records sufficient to identify expenses incurred for the following items, as well as how the following items were funded:

- i. Filming (including both equipment and staffing) of the Secretary of State's speech for the Republican National Convention
- ii. Use of the rooftop of the King David Hotel in Jerusalem for the Secretary of State's remarks for the Republican National Convention
- iii. Diplomatic Security staffing during the Secretary of State's remarks for the Republican National Convention
- iv. Transportation to and from the King David Hotel in Jerusalem for filming of the Secretary of State's remarks for the Republican National Convention
- v. Any staging or setup required to prepare the King David Hotel in Jerusalem for filming of the Secretary of State's remarks for the Republican National Convention

To the extent that State was reimbursed for these expenses by the Republican National Committee, invoices or documentation reflecting the reimbursements would be responsive to this request and should be produced. To the extent that State received any of the aforementioned items as "gifts", documentation reflecting that determination is also responsive to this request and should be produced.

American Oversight believes State is best positioned to determine where responsive records may reside. At a minimum, responsive records may reside in the Office of the Secretary, Office of Diplomatic Security, U.S. Embassy in Jerusalem, and any office that handles State expenses and reimbursements for the Secretary's activities.

Please provide all responsive records from July 1, 2020, through the date the search is conducted.

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) and your agency's regulations, American Oversight requests a waiver of fees associated with processing this request for records. The subject of this request concerns the operations of the federal government, and the disclosures will likely contribute to a better understanding of relevant government procedures by the general public in a significant way. Moreover, the request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.

American Oversight requests a waiver of fees because disclosure of the requested information is "in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of operations or activities of the government."⁵ The public has a significant interest in understanding whether taxpayer resources were used in the Secretary of State's speech for the Republican National Convention, recorded during his official travel to Israel. Records with the potential to shed light on this matter would contribute significantly to public understanding of operations of the federal government, including whether and to what extent the decision violated department policy and federal government regulations. American Oversight is committed to transparency and makes the responses agencies provide to FOIA requests publicly available, and the public's understanding of the government's activities would be enhanced through American Oversight's analysis and publication of these records.

This request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.⁶ As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight's financial interest. American Oversight's mission is to promote transparency in government, to educate the public about government activities, and to ensure the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media. American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public website and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.⁷

Guidance Regarding the Search & Processing of Requested Records

In connection with its request for records, American Oversight provides the following guidance regarding the scope of the records sought and the search and processing of records:

- Please search all locations and systems likely to have responsive records, regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. For instance, if the request seeks “communications,” please search all locations likely to contain communications, including relevant hard-copy files, correspondence files, appropriate locations on hard drives and shared drives, emails, text messages or other direct messaging systems (such as iMessage, WhatsApp, Signal, or Twitter direct messages), voicemail messages, instant messaging systems such as Lync or ICQ, and shared messages systems such as Slack.
- In conducting your search, please understand the terms “record,” “document,” and “information” in their broadest sense, to include any written, typed, recorded, graphic, printed, or audio material of any kind. We seek records of any kind, including electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, and photographs, as well as letters, emails, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages, and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations, or discussions.
- Our request for records includes any attachments to those records or other materials enclosed with those records when they were previously transmitted. To the extent that an email is responsive to our request, our request includes all prior messages sent or received in that email chain, as well as any attachments to the email.

- Please search all relevant records or systems containing records regarding agency business. Do not exclude records regarding agency business contained in files, email accounts, or devices in the personal custody of your officials, such as personal email accounts or text messages. Records of official business conducted using unofficial systems or stored outside of official files are subject to the Federal Records Act and FOIA.¹⁴ It is not adequate to rely on policies and procedures that require officials to move such information to official systems within a certain period of time; American Oversight has a right to records contained in those files even if material has not yet been moved to official systems or if officials have, by intent or through negligence, failed to meet their obligations.¹⁵
- Please use all tools available to your agency to conduct a complete and efficient search for potentially responsive records. Agencies are subject to government-wide requirements to manage agency information electronically,¹⁶ and many agencies have adopted the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) Capstone program, or similar policies. These systems provide options for searching emails and other electronic records in a manner that is reasonably likely to be more complete than just searching individual custodian files. For example, a custodian may have deleted a responsive email from his or her email program, but your agency's archiving tools may capture that email under Capstone. At the same time, custodian searches are still necessary; agencies may not have direct access to files stored in .PST files, outside of network drives, in paper format, or in personal email accounts.

- In the event some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records. If a request is denied in whole, please state specifically why it is not reasonable to segregate portions of the record for release.
- Please take appropriate steps to ensure that records responsive to this request are not deleted by the agency before the completion of processing for this request. If records potentially responsive to this request are likely to be located on systems where they are subject to potential deletion, including on a scheduled basis, please take steps to prevent that deletion, including, as appropriate, by instituting a litigation hold on those records.

Conclusion

If you have any questions regarding how to construe this request for records or believe that further discussions regarding search and processing would facilitate a more efficient production of records of interest to American Oversight, please do not hesitate to contact American Oversight to discuss this request. American Oversight welcomes an opportunity to discuss its request with you before you undertake your search or incur search or duplication costs. By working together at the outset, American Oversight and your agency can decrease the likelihood of costly and time-consuming litigation in the future.

Where possible, please provide responsive material in an electronic format by email. Alternatively, please provide responsive material in native format or in PDF format on a USB drive. Please send any responsive material being sent by mail to American Oversight, 1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255, Washington, DC 20005. If it will accelerate release of responsive records to American Oversight, please also provide responsive material on a rolling basis.

We share a common mission to promote transparency in government. American Oversight looks forward to working with your agency on this request. If you do not understand any part of this request, please contact Dan McGrath at foia@americanoversight.org or 202.897.4213. Also, if American Oversight's request for a fee waiver is not granted in full, please contact us immediately upon making such a determination.

Sincerely,
