Re: Public Records Law Request

Dear Chief Clerk Blazel and Representative Sanfelippo:

Pursuant to Wisconsin's public records law, Wis. Stat. §§ 19.31–19.39, American Oversight makes the following request for copies of records.

On May 26, 2021, Wisconsin State Assembly Speaker Robin Vos indicated that the legislature would hire three former law enforcement officers and a supervising attorney to investigate the November 2020 election.¹ Since the time of this announcement, the names of several of the contracted individuals have been made public, including former Milwaukee Police Detective Mike Sandvick and former Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Michael Gableman, whose past actions have raised concerns over the partiality of the investigation.²

On July 26, Representative Brandtjen announced that the Assembly Campaign and Elections Committee intended to “initiate a more intensive investigation” of alleged fraud,³ separate from that overseen by Assembly Speaker Robin Vos,⁴ and issued subpoenas to Milwaukee and Brown Counties for election materials the following week.⁵ On July 30, Speaker Vos announced that two investigators had quit due to time demands and former justice Gableman would instead serve as “special counsel” in an expansion of the original investigation.⁶ Many details remain obscure regarding the inquiries announced by Speaker Vos and Representative Brandtjen, including when contractors’ terms commenced and/or ended, and whether or to what extent the two investigations will intersect or overlap.

American Oversight seeks records with the potential to shed light on the Wisconsin legislature’s investigations of the November 2020 election.

Requested Records

American Oversight requests that your office produce the following records “as soon as practicable and without delay”:⁷

1. A complete copy (including any attachments) of any contract or subcontract, amendment, memorandum of understanding, or other written agreement between the Wisconsin State Assembly (or members thereof) and parties investigating the November 2020 election. At a minimum, this request interpreted to include agreements with Mike Sandvick, Steve Page and former justice Michael Gableman,⁸ as well as with any individuals or entities contracted in association with any investigations of the 2020 election.
2. A complete copy (including any attachments) of any resume, bid, project proposal, cost or time estimate, scope of work, application form, or other document submitted to the Wisconsin State Assembly (or members thereof) by entities investigating the 2020 election.

3. A complete copy of any invoice from or payment to entities investigating the November 2020 election.

Please provide all responsive records from July 15, 2021, through the date the search is conducted.

For all portions of this request, this request should be interpreted to include records pertaining to the investigation announced by Speaker Vos on May 26, the expansion announced by Speaker Vos on July 30, the investigation announced by Representative Brandtjen on July 26, and any other investigations by the Assembly into any matters related to the 2020 election. Please note that this request seeks records in addition to, and not duplicative of, the records sought by any previous requests submitted by American Oversight.

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with Wis. Stat. § 19.35(3)(e), American Oversight respectfully requests that the records be produced without charge. Providing American Oversight with a waiver of fees is in the “public interest” because American Oversight will, in accordance with its organizational mission, make the records available to the public without charge. These disclosures will likely contribute to a better understanding of relevant government action by the general public.

American Oversight’s work is aimed solely at serving the public interest. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight’s financial interest. Rather, American Oversight’s mission is to serve the public by promoting transparency in government, educating the public about government activities, and ensuring the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media.⁹ American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public

The public has a significant interest in the Wisconsin state legislature's investigations of the November 2020 election.¹² Records with the potential to shed light on this matter would contribute significantly to public understanding of operations of the government, including whether or to what extent partisan motivations or external actors guided the decision to open investigations or expand the scope of existing investigations. American Oversight is committed to transparency and makes the responses agencies provide to public records requests publicly available, and the public's understanding of the government's activities would be enhanced through American Oversight's analysis and publication of these records.

American Oversight asks that if its request for a fee waiver is denied in whole or in part, that you contact us prior to incurring any costs.

Guidance Regarding the Search & Processing of Requested Records

American Oversight seeks all responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. In conducting your search, please understand the term "record" in its broadest sense, to include any written, typed, recorded, graphic, printed, or audio material of any kind. We seek records of any kind, including electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, and photographs, as well as letters, emails, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations or discussions. Our request includes any attachments to these records. No category of material should be omitted from search, collection, and production.

Please search all locations and systems likely to have responsive records regarding official business. You may not exclude searches of files or emails in the personal custody of your officials, such as personal email accounts. Emails conducting government business sent or received on the personal account of the authority's officer or employee constitutes a record for purposes of Wisconsin's public records laws.¹³

In the event some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records.¹⁴ If it is your position that a document contains non-exempt segments, but that those non-exempt segments are so dispersed throughout the document as to make segregation impossible, please state what portion of the document is non-exempt, and how the material is dispersed throughout the document. If a request is denied in whole, please state specifically that it is not reasonable to segregate portions of the record for release.

American Oversight expects that you have ensured all responsive records and records relevant to this request and your compliance with it are retained as required by Wisconsin law. Please take all appropriate steps to ensure that no such records are deleted by the agency before the completion of processing for this request. If records potentially responsive or relevant to this request, or your compliance with it, are likely to be located on systems where they are subject to potential deletion, including on a scheduled basis, please take steps to prevent that deletion, including, as appropriate, by instituting a litigation hold on those records.

Conclusion

If you have any questions regarding how to construe this request for records or believe that further discussions regarding search and processing would facilitate a more efficient production of records of interest to American Oversight, please do not hesitate to contact American Oversight to discuss this request. American Oversight welcomes an opportunity to discuss its request with you before you undertake your search or incur search or duplication costs. By working together at the outset, American Oversight and your agency can decrease the likelihood of costly and time-consuming litigation in the future.

Where possible, please provide responsive material in an electronic format by email. Alternatively, please provide responsive material in native format or in PDF format on a USB drive. Please send any responsive material being sent by mail to American Oversight, 1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255, Washington, DC 20005. If it will accelerate release of responsive records to American Oversight, please also provide responsive material on a rolling basis.

We share a common mission to promote transparency in government. American Oversight looks forward to working with your agency on this request. If you do not understand any part of this request, please contact Sarah Colombo at records@americanoversight.org or (202) 869-5244. Also, if American Oversight's
