Re: Public Records Law Request

Dear Representative Ramthun:

Pursuant to Wisconsin's public records law, Wis. Stat. §§ 19.31–19.39, American Oversight makes the following request for copies of records.

On May 26, 2021, Wisconsin State Assembly Speaker Robin Vos indicated that the legislature would hire three former law enforcement officers and a supervising attorney to investigate the November 2020 election.¹ Since the time of this announcement, Speaker Vos has expanded the scope of the investigation, appointing former Wisconsin Supreme Court justice Michael Gableman as “special counsel,” and gaining Assembly approval to spend at least $676,000 in public funds.² More than a year later, the Assembly has spent more than $1 million on the investigation led by Gableman,³ whose current contract with the Assembly appears to have no definitive end date.⁴ Representative Janel Brandtjen, chair of the Committee on Campaigns and Elections, has led a separate investigation,⁵ and she and Representative Tim Ramthun have likewise supported the recall of Wisconsin's 2020 presidential electors.⁶

American Oversight seeks records with the potential to shed light on the Wisconsin Assembly's investigations of the November 2020 election.

Requested Records

American Oversight requests that Representative Ramthun produce the following records "as soon as practicable and without delay":⁷

Please provide all responsive records described below from May 9, 2022, through the date the search is conducted:⁸

All records reflecting communications (including emails, email attachments, text messages, messages on messaging platforms (such as Slack, GChat or Google Hangouts, Lync, Skype, or WhatsApp), telephone call logs, calendar invitations, calendar entries, meeting notices, meeting agendas, informational material, draft legislation, talking points, any handwritten or electronic notes taken during any oral communications, summaries of any oral communications, or other materials) sent or received by Representative Tim Ramthun (or anyone communicating on Representative Ramthun's behalf) regarding any investigations of the 2020 election.

This request should be interpreted to include, but not be limited to, all of the categories of records described in the request previously submitted by American ⁷ Wis. Stat. § 19.35(4)(a).

⁸ This request seeks the records substantively described in American Oversight's request identified as WI-REP-22-0460, directed to Ramthun, from the period after that request was submitted—i.e., from May 9, 2022, through the date of the search—with modifications to account for recent events. See <https://www.americanoversight.org/document/records-request-to-wisconsin-rep-ramthun-seeking-communications-regarding-entities-investigating-november-2020-election>.

Oversight identified as WI-REP-22-0460,⁹ as well as records relating to, at a minimum:

1. The pause in the OSC investigation while outstanding litigation is decided, pursuant to the May 1, 2022 agreement between Gableman and Speaker Vos on behalf of the Wisconsin Assembly.¹⁰
2. The decision by Speaker Vos not to seek reimbursement for Gableman's taxpayer-funded travel to Phoenix, Arizona, and Sioux Falls, South Dakota.¹¹
3. Gableman's attendance or planned attendance of campaign events for Adam Steen or other candidates.¹²
4. Dane County Circuit Judge Stephen Ehlke's ruling rejecting allegations by the Thomas More Society that private election grants to municipalities in the 2020 elections constituted bribery.¹³
5. Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC) member Dean Knudson's resignation and replacement by current WEC Chair Don Millis.¹⁴
6. Gableman and Representative Brandtjen's attendance of the "Wisconsin Statewide Election Integrity Summit."¹⁵
7. Storage, maintenance, or destruction of records relating to the OSC investigation.

Please note that these are exemplar categories only and should not be interpreted to limit American Oversight's request for records reflecting all communications sent or received by the parties described above regarding any investigations of the 2020 election.

Please also note that American Oversight does not seek, and that this request specifically excludes, the initial mailing of news clips or other mass-distribution emails. However, subsequent communications forwarding such emails are responsive to this request. In other words, for example, if Rep. Ramthun received a mass-distribution news clip email referencing any pause in the OSC investigation, that initial email would not be responsive to this request. However, if Rep. Ramthun forwarded that email to another individual with their own commentary, that subsequent message would be responsive to this request and should be produced.

For all portions of this request, this request should be interpreted to include records pertaining to the investigation announced by Speaker Vos on May 26, the expansion announced by Speaker Vos on July 30, the investigation announced by Representative Brandtjen on July 26, and any other investigations by the Assembly into any matters related to the 2020 election. Please note that this request seeks records in addition to, and not duplicative of, the records sought by any previous requests submitted by American Oversight.

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with Wis. Stat. § 19.35(3)(e), American Oversight respectfully requests that the records be produced without charge. Providing American Oversight with a waiver of fees is in the “public interest” because American Oversight will, in accordance with its organizational mission, make the records available to the public without charge. These disclosures will likely contribute to a better understanding of relevant government procedures by the general public.

American Oversight’s work is aimed solely at serving the public interest. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight’s financial interest. Rather, American Oversight’s mission is to serve the public by promoting transparency in government, educating the public about government activities, and ensuring the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media.¹⁶ American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public website¹⁷ and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.¹⁸

The public has a significant interest in the Wisconsin Assembly's investigation of the November 2020 election.¹⁹ Records with the potential to shed light on this matter would contribute significantly to public understanding of operations of the government, including regarding the Assembly's investigations of the 2020 election. American Oversight is committed to transparency and makes the responses agencies provide to public records requests publicly available, and the public's understanding of the government's activities would be enhanced through American Oversight's analysis and publication of these records.

American Oversight asks that if its request for a fee waiver is denied in whole or in part, that you contact us prior to incurring any costs.

Guidance Regarding the Search & Processing of Requested Records

American Oversight seeks all responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. In conducting your search, please understand the term "record" in its broadest sense, to include any written, typed, recorded, graphic, printed, or audio material of any kind. We seek records of any kind, including electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, and photographs, as well as letters, emails, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations or discussions. Our request includes any attachments to these records. No category of material should be omitted from search, collection, and production.

Please search all locations and systems likely to have responsive records regarding official business. You may not exclude searches of files or emails in the personal custody of your officials, such as personal email accounts. Emails conducting government business sent or received on the personal account of the authority's officer or employee constitutes a record for purposes of Wisconsin's public records laws.²⁰

In the event some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records.²¹ If it is your position that a document contains non-exempt segments, but that those non-exempt segments are so dispersed throughout the document as to make segregation impossible, please state what portion of the document is non-exempt, and how the material is dispersed throughout the document. If a request is denied in whole, please state specifically that it is not reasonable to segregate portions of the record for release.

American Oversight expects that you have ensured all responsive records and records relevant to this request and your compliance with it are retained as required by Wisconsin law. Please take all appropriate steps to ensure that no such records are deleted by the agency before the completion of processing for this request. If records potentially responsive or relevant to this request, or your compliance with it, are likely to be located on systems where they are subject to potential deletion, including on a scheduled basis, please take steps to prevent that deletion, including, as appropriate, by instituting a litigation hold on those records.

Conclusion

If you have any questions regarding how to construe this request for records or believe that further discussions regarding search and processing would facilitate a more efficient production of records of interest to American Oversight, please do not hesitate to contact American Oversight to discuss this request. American Oversight welcomes an opportunity to discuss its request with you before you undertake your search or incur search or duplication costs. By working together at the outset, American Oversight and your agency can decrease the likelihood of costly and time-consuming litigation in the future.

Where possible, please provide responsive material in an electronic format by email. Alternatively, please provide responsive material in native format or in PDF format on a USB drive. Please send any responsive material being sent by mail to American Oversight, 1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255, Washington, DC 20005. If it will accelerate release of responsive records to American Oversight, please also provide responsive material on a rolling basis.

We share a common mission to promote transparency in government. American Oversight looks forward to working with your agency on this request. If you do not understand any part of this request, please contact Sarah Colombo at downloads@americanoversight.org or (202) 869-5244. Also, if American Oversight's request for a fee waiver is not granted in full, please contact us immediately upon making such a determination.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sarah Colombo
